Laws Whiskey House is a grain-to-glass distillery in Denver, Colorado that applies a “there are no shortcuts” philosophy to each batch of whiskey produced. Each batch is milled, cooked, fermented, distilled, and aged on-site, utilizing heirloom grains from family-owned Colorado farms. The practice of open air, on-grain fermentation captures the essence of Colorado’s terroir while the copper pot-column still produces a robust, grain-forward style of whiskey that is aged in 53 gallon charred oak barrels for a minimum of three years.

Our Bonded Centennial Straight Wheat Whiskey is skillfully crafted using a Soft White Centennial Wheat grown in the high altitude San Luis Valley of Southern Colorado. This heirloom varietal of Spring wheat produces a soft and floral whiskey with a bright clean finish.

- ◆ Mash Bill: 100% Soft White Centennial Spring Wheat
- ◆ Aged over five years in new, 53 gal, charred oak barrels
- ◆ Tasting Notes: Aromas of mountain strawberries & orange marmalade accentuate the hints of alpine meadow & wildflower honey. Jasmine tea, sage and spruce tips fade into pink peppercorns. The spirit finishes dry with lightly bitter candied orange.

Meets the standards of the Bottled in Bond Act of 1897. Bottled in Bond requires that the whiskey be a product of a single season, using the grain of a single season, made by one distiller at a single distillery, and aged at least four years in a federal government-bonded warehouse. The whiskey is then cut and bottled at 100 proof (50% ABV).
